

T

THE TETLEY

INTERNATIONAL

CONTEMPORARY

ARTISTS'

BOOK

FAIR

PRESENTED IN PARTNERSHIP WITH PAGES

THE TETLEY AND PAGES PRESENT

18TH INTERNATIONAL CONTEMPORARY ARTISTS' BOOK FAIR

FREE

SATURDAY 7 MARCH 2015, 11AM – 6PM

SUNDAY 8 MARCH 2015, 11AM – 4PM

EXHIBITIONS LAUNCH: FRIDAY 6 MARCH 6-9PM, ALL WELCOME, FREE

We are delighted to welcome back the Contemporary Artists' Book Fair for another exciting weekend of displays, exhibitions and live events revolving around the expanding genre of the artist's book and small press publishing. With over 50 exhibitors from across the UK and beyond, the fair is one of the most established and largest in the country.

Collections and Collaborations: a series of projects, exhibitions and live events complementing the book fair will be showing at The Tetley until 22 March.

EVENTS AND EXHIBITIONS

Film Screening

Thursday 5 March, 6-9pm

Flip books! Un livre, un pouce, un film (2007)

Co-produced by LENDROIT & Université Rennes

Exhibitions Launch

Friday 6 March, 6-9pm

Performances, readings and music by Guerrilla

Writers / Art Cowboys

Book Fair Artists' Talks

Saturday 7 & Sunday 8 March

Becky Lowe, LCA Library – What is an artists' book?

Craig Atkinson – Café Royal Books: collecting, collaborating and forgotten archives

Amy Cutler – Promising Glosses

Susan Johanknecht and Katharine Meynell –

Reading out loud: process and collaboration

Book Fair workshops

Saturday 7 & Sunday 8 March

Letterpress, Flip book, Zine making

Curated Projects

Saturday 7 – Sunday 22 March

7.45 Books/ Kippenberger Challenge

Louise Atkinson – Lorem Ipsum

Lenka Clayton/Chris Taylor – Old things, new order

Katya Robin – Hexopolis

Sophie Loss – Re object

John McDowall – More is less is more: artists' books as collection/accumulation

Guerrilla Writers – The Editions

Keep an eye on our website for more information on projects and events that accompany the Book Fair.